

THE SALVATION ARMY CONSUMER DONATION GUIDELINES

DOING
THE MOST GOOD™

The Salvation Army greatly appreciates your donations. Your donated items are resold in our Family Stores located throughout Southern Connecticut. We accept items for resale that are clean and are in good working condition.

We regret that we are not able to repair or clean any items. The following list represents items that we accept. We will provide you with a receipt upon request for your donation. We are unable to assess the value of your donations. We ask that you fill out your own receipt. The receipt can be a general recap stating the number of clothing bags or boxes containing the items you are donating. You will receive a receipt acknowledging your donation to the Salvation Army.
